The Aberdeen High School
presents

'64 TIMEKEEPER

Aberdeen High School,

Foreword

This 1964 TIMEKEEPER is a simple pictorial record of the events at Aberdeen High School during the 1963-64 school year. This year was basically the same as any high school year; we studied—had fun, experienced sad moments of trial and error.

Each page will mean something different to each of you. The format has not been as important to us as has been our desire to please you.

We hope you like the TIMEKEEPER, 1964, and will like it even more in 1984.

Aberdeen, North Carolina

Within these Walls . . .

We participate in sports...

We experience different feelings...

We meet new people and make new friends...

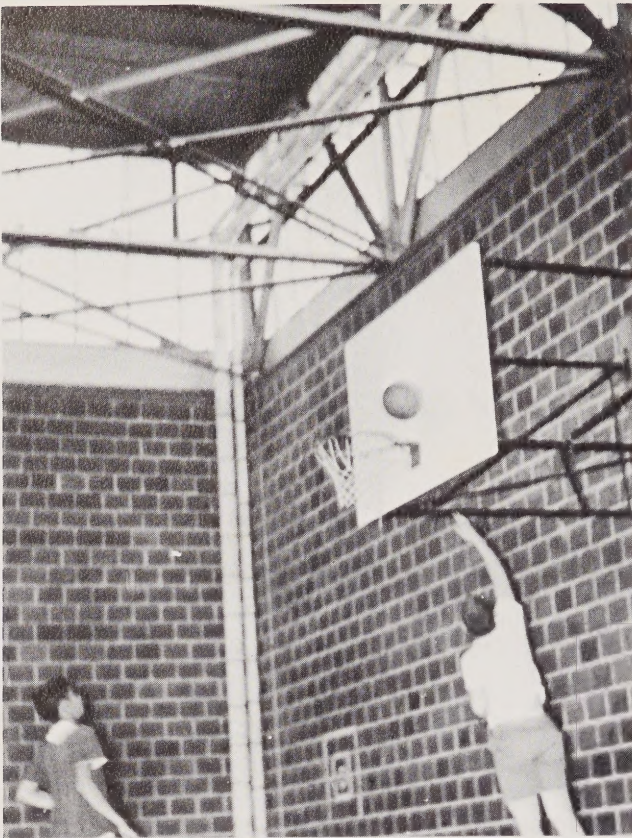

We participate in various activities...

We enjoy ourselves in any free time...

We study...

sometimes!

We participate in intramurals...

And once in a while we get caught...

But most important...we learn.

In Memoriam

When we into our gardens go
To pick a flower so fair,
We select for its fragrance, its
size, and its shape,
And for its beauty rich and rare.
God in His wisdom did this when He chose
A flower from our bouquet;
He picked, not the withered nor the old, but took
Our most beautiful rose away.

GRAY KEITH

And now we see a life composed of many intangible paths. A small child entering the first grade to begin his education. A twelve year old scout becomes the youngest scout in history to achieve the winning of the "For God and Country" award, accomplishing in sixteen months a course which ordinarily takes two years. A youth leading his classmates in various activities, running for the office of recording secretary, for which he had been nominated for the Junior Student Government association. This was Gray—always willing, helping, and serving. Though he is gone he still guides our lives. He lifts our eyes upward, to a broad new horizon—a horizon expressing faith, hope, and trust. His outstanding life has caused a turning point in the lives of all who knew him, and will ever inspire our lives. Though Gray lasted only a short while, his influence is of everlasting value, and his memory will reign in the hearts and minds of his classmates, the Class of 1964, forever.

We honor you, Jack Crenshaw . . .

For the tremendous feats he accomplishes as our coach, leading us from one victory to another, but always leaving in us the idea of true sportsmanship, we thank him. Whether on the football or on the basketball court, his spirit is felt by all who know him. He teaches his players the rules of the game; how to get that ball or make a foul shot. But what is more important, he teaches the players the right way to play the game. He gives them the spirit and enthusiasm needed for playing and winning a game.

For his understanding and his intense personal welfare in the education of every student, we admire him. In the classroom, as well as on the football field or on the basketball court, he takes an interest in every student, trying to teach even the most stubborn student the value of an education. Because of his devotion to his work in developing the minds and bodies of his students, we wish to dedicate the 1964 TIMEKEEPER to MR. JACK CRENSHAW.

Administration provides able leadership

PRINCIPAL, Mr. J. R. Brendell

You can turn any corner, glance down any corridor and find our friend, Mr. Brendell. During his first year as principal of AHS, we have come to admire and respect him for his wisdom and his understanding of our small, "ridiculous" problems and our big, "serious" problems. We congratulate Mr. Brendell for a job well done.

SECRETARY, Mrs. Wallace

To list all of Mrs. Wallace's services to AHS would take more space than we have in this annual. We also congratulate Mrs. Wallace for a job well done.

SUPERINTENDENT, Mr. R. E. Lee

A familiar sight in our school is our superintendent, Mr. R. E. Lee.

Seniors

An end, a thoughtful hesitancy, a beginning, we are—Seniors. We, the class of nineteen hundred-sixty four, will forever cherish the entities of our high-school years—the tardy bell ringing two minutes early—the times we did not get caught and the times we did—the madden-ing 3:10 rush—the order for invitations, the class picutres with two poses—the college applications to complete—the letter of acceptance—the GRADUATION.

These are all apart of our Senior year, never to be forgotten.

Underclassmen

Underclassmen

Underclassmen

Work, jest, work, tears, work, while UNDERCLASSMEN. This year has been a highly successful one for the underclassmen. They have worked extra hard, participating in class activities, and in school activities. They have taken one step farther along the road of knowledge and maturity, and are better prepared to accept the responsibilities which await them in the coming years. For the successes of the year there are pleasant memories; for its failures there is next year in which to improve.

Activities

Activities

Activities

The spirit which makes AHS what it is may be observed in any of the school's activities, from pep rallies to school work, but it is nowhere greater than in the clubs and organizations of the school. Through these activities, students have the opportunity to supplement their education, to make new friends, or simply have a good time. Besides providing an outlet for the interests and talents of the students, the organizations accomplished many worthwhile projects within the school. The organizations are constant proof that an individual's education at AHS is not limited to the classroom but is the result as well, of his participation in extra-curricular activities.

The purpose of the Beta Club is to honor students of good character who have a commendable scholastic record. This year for the first time we have tapped sophomores who have a 95 average. Of the various projects of the Beta Club, the publishing of the annual is most important.

Beta members discuss many things, such as Beta Club tapping, convention, and the annual. Mrs. Sue Buffkin is the sponsor.

Annual staff members worked hard to publish the annual.

Hours of concentrated work and effort, hours filled with endless streams of ideas, and; of course, hours of fun have been needed to compile each page of this annual. On these pages we have tried to explain YOU—the students of AHS.

Athletics

Athletics

Athletics are a vital part of school life. They are the binding factor that holds the student body together and leads to the famous AHS spirit. Sports provide not only a chance to excel in physical activities, but also furnish opportunities for outstanding athletes to gain recognition they deserve from the school and the public. Thus at AHS, we are fortunate to have such a fine athletic department which, through its guidance of our sportsmen, fosters the spirit that ties our school into one student body.

Girls work hard for better year

Kathy Whitlock, Mike Graham, Janet Swearingen, Betty Jo Swaim, Barbara Maurer, Terry Keller, Bobbie Swaim, Lea Caviness, and Patty Bayliff.

Although the team's won-lost scoreboard was not spectacular, the season's record extends much further. Under the coaching of Mr. Crenshaw, the team developed into a closely knit unit using teamwork rather than individual effort alone.

Co-captains Bobbie Holt and Sally Fowler have done a fine job in leading the team and in keeping their spirits up.

With our winning football season behind us, our coaches, players, and students prepared for an equally successfully basketball season. Under the guidance of coaches Ben Utley and Bobby Brendell, the boys practiced diligently and reaped their first satisfaction when the team beat West End.

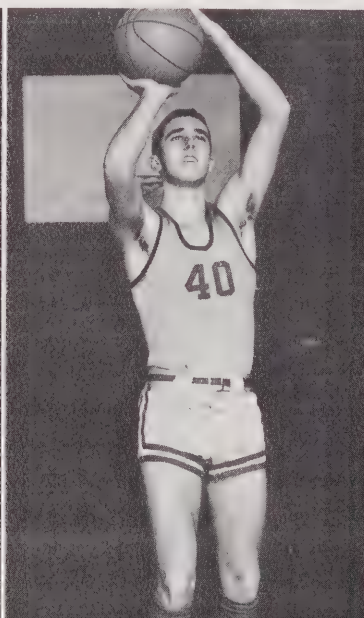

Although the year's record was not outstanding, the players did a tremendous job out on the court and represented our school, our spirit, and our capabilities in an appropriate manner.

Led by the co-captains Wayne Lewis and Daryl Wynn, the Red Devils fought for victory in every game.

Cheerleaders keep spirits high.

Cheerleaders boost morale at the bonfires held before big games.

Chief, Gail Gschwind and Co-chief, Babs Arey

The "1964" cheerleaders did their best to instill morale and spirit in the team along with keeping fans alive and confident. It took plenty of endurance and teamwork to make up the fine squad of cheerleaders who represent Aberdeen High School. Many hours were spent in practicing new cheers and in improving familiar ones. These girls were tireless at every game and no matter what the outcome they never conceded to defeat. Aside from rooting for the team, other activities were bake sales and pep rallies. They greatly inspired the entire student body with their enthusiasm and rousing cheers.

Features

An integral part of life at Aberdeen high is the enjoyment that its traditional features bring to us all. Drudgery and schoolwork are forgotten as we recall the highlights of the year; the pride of watching a winning football team in action, the joy of seeing a lovely queen crowned, the glamour of a formal dance, the boisterous fun of Sadie Hawkins, the half-happiness, half-sorrow of graduation. Throughout the year these events kept our interest in the school alive, putting the needed variety into everyday, and bringing about new friendships through association with others.

Twerp Week

Daisy Mae and Lil Abner

Twerp Week was one of the busiest weeks for students at AHS. Featured during Twerp Week was the Twerp Dance, Sloppy Joe Day, Sadie Hawkins Race, and the privilege for girls to ask boys for dates and dances. Daisy Mae was crowned at the Twerp Dance, held after the ballgame. She then chose her own Lil' Abner.

BETTY JO SWAIM was chosen by the Student Council to be Daisy Mae. She chose WAYNE LEWIS to be her Lil' Abner.

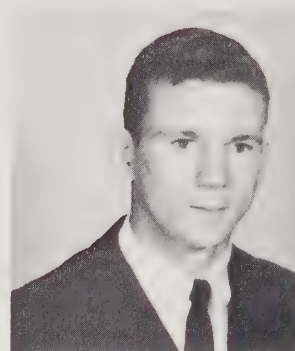

One of the highlights of Twerp Week was Sloppy Joe Day. On this day the students were allowed to dress as they wished. Here we see the students anxiously waiting for the auction of the boys to begin.

Outstanding Achievements.

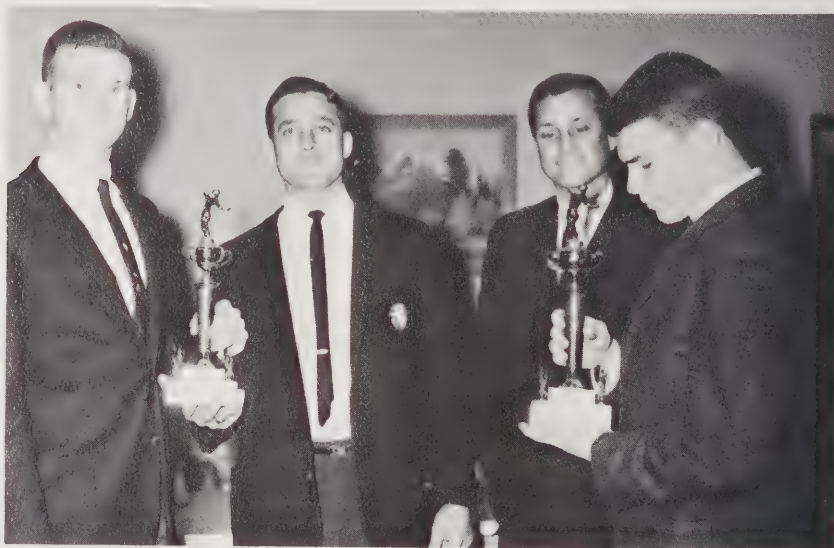

ALL CONFERENCE: Larry Muse, Daryl Wynn, Rodger Puckett, Danny Batchelor, Wayne Lewis, and Gary Thompson.

Scoring a major number of Aberdeen's points, GARY THOMPSON was chosen for the ALL-EAST ALL-STAR TEAM.

Receiving trophies from Coach Crenshaw are GARY THOMPSON, MOST IMPROVED PLAYER and DARYL WYNN, MOST VALUABLE PLAYER.

Chosen for the DAR GOOD CITIZEN AWARD was ANN AREY.

Cafeteria Personnel and Janitors

Mrs. Thomas and the cafeteria personnel have done an excellent job this year in preparing meals for the students.

Aberdeen High School is indeed fortunate in its cafeteria personnel and janitors. These efficient staffs carry out their respective duties smoothly. The school could not possibly operate without the aid of our fine janitors and cafeteria personnel.

The janitors do a fine job in the appearance and the upkeep of our school.
